The Adult Sabbath School Bible Study Guide is prepared by the Office of the Adult Bible Study Guide of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. The preparation of the guides is under the general direction of the Sabbath School Publications Board, a subcommittee of the General Conference Administrative Committee (ADCOM), publisher of the Bible study guides. The published guide reflects the input of worldwide evaluation committees and the approval of the Sabbath School Publications Board and thus does not solely or necessarily represent the intent of the author(s).

REVIVAL AND REFORMATION

In every generation, God's Spirit strives to bring revival to the hearts of His people. Revival is an ongoing, daily experience. Each of us should identify with an old hymn that says: "Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, / Prone to leave the God I love" (From "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing" by Robert Robinson). Deep within, we know these words are true.

Our hearts are, indeed, prone to wander. Our minds drift from the eternal to the mundane. Our thoughts turn so easily from the heavenly to the earthly. Too often we seem to be in bondage to deeply entrenched habits. At times our own attitudes and reactions baffle us.

And that's because our natures are fallen (Jer. 17:9) as the result of sin. Our natural tendency is to turn from God's way to our own (Isa. 53:6). With the apostle Paul we cry out, "O wretched man that I am" (Rom. 7:24), and with David we plead, "Revive me, O LORD, according to your lovingkindness" (Ps. 119:159, NKJV).

Revival is all about a God of loving-kindness seeking to deepen His relationship with us. The initiative in revival is His. His Spirit creates longings within us. His Spirit convicts us of our need. His Spirit reveals Jesus' goodness and grace.

Throughout history, God's Spirit has moved mightily in revival. When Israel drifted from God's plan and purposes, God used the young King Josiah to lead the nation back to Him, and a mighty revival followed. At the dedication of the temple, God said to Solomon: " 'If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land' ” (2 Chron. 7:14, NKJV). God’s heart longing was for Israel to meet the conditions of revival, experience the power of revival, and reveal the light of His love to the entire world.

When God’s people responded to His appeals for revival, He worked mightily in their behalf. This was true for the New Testament Christian church, the Reformation, and the Advent Movement. It will also be true for God’s end-time people. His Holy Spirit will be poured out in its fullness and the earth will be “illuminated with his glory” (Rev. 18:1, NKJV).

This quarter’s lessons focus on the varied aspects of revival and reformation. Together we will probe such questions as, What are the conditions that God has given for the outpouring of His Spirit? Is God waiting for some magical moment to pour out His Spirit on His last-day church? What does it mean to live a Spirit-filled life? Is there anything we can do to cooperate with God in order to receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit now? Where does revival and reformation begin?

Ellen G. White described the importance of revival in these words: “A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs.”—Selected Messages, book 1, p. 121. Heaven places priority on revival. What could be more important? This quarter, as we study such topics as prayer and revival, the Word and revival, witnessing and revival, a finished work and revival, and other related subjects, let us pray that God will powerfully speak to our hearts and draw us closer to Him.

Why not open your heart to the moving of His Spirit right now? Why not ask Him to do something extra special in your life today? He will answer your prayers, and heavenly blessings will flow in ways that you have not yet imagined.

Revival is all about a God of loving-kindness seeking to deepen His relationship with us. The initiative in revival is His.

A native of Connecticut, U.S.A., Mark Finley, an internationally known evangelist, was a vice president at the General Conference from 2005–2010. After retiring from full-time employment, he became an assistant to the president of the General Conference to work part time with the Revival and Reformation initiative. Pastor Finley and his wife, Ernestine, have three children and two grandchildren.

GOD'S PEOPLE are PRAYING and
READING the BIBLE EVERY DAY

WON'T YOU JOIN THEM?

REVIVED BY HIS WORD

Read through the Bible together

- Listen to or read the daily Bible chapter
- Read the Revived by His Word blog
- Share your thoughts with the Revived By His Word community.

"No other book is so potent to elevate the thoughts, to give vigor to the faculties, as the broad, ennobling truths of the Bible. (Steps to Christ, p. 90).

RENEWED THROUGH PRAYER

Pray for the Holy Spirit's presence in our families, leaders, churches, and communities.

Unite with other believers at 7 a.m. and 7 p.m., 7 days a week. Visit the Apple app store to download the free InPrayer app, featuring daily prayer reminders.

"A chain of earnest praying believers should encircle the world . . . to pray for the Holy Spirit" (Review and Herald, January 3, 1907).

HEARING IS ONE THING, BUT SEEING IS ALTOGETHER DIFFERENT.

With the Adventist Mission DVD, you see how lives are changed. You see how the church works around the world. You see how your mission offerings make a real difference, every single day.

A free Adventist Mission DVD from the world church headquarters is sent to your church each quarter. To see these inspiring stories, ask your pastor or Sabbath School leader to show them at your church. Or see them for yourself at www.AdventistMission.org.

Thank you for helping tell the world about Jesus through your mission offerings.
